TRAINING DESIGN

I. TITLE : Live-Out Seminar-Workshop on GAD with Focus on Financial Management, Responsible Parenthood, Effective Communication and Media Education

II. RATIONALE

As the society is confronted with varied gender issues and concerns, the Division of Cebu Province is strengthening the Gender and Development (GAD) Program by encouraging the promotion of gender equality, not only in the workplace, but also in the home and in the community.

Relative to this, the Division GAD Coordinator has identified the need for an avenue for every personnel to further explore the world of men and women and to enjoy the same privilege of being capacitated with the knowledge, skills, and attitude (KSAs) essential to their roles and functions as individual workers, team leaders, responsible parents and community members.

Provided with a training on Gender and Development with Focus on Financial Management, Responsible Parenthood, Effective Communication and Media Education, both male and female teachers will have an opportunity to contribute to the realization of a gender-fair school system and society.

III. OBJECTIVES

General:

Deepen understanding on the important GAD core messages and concepts through enriched knowledge on Financial Management, Responsible Parenthood, Effective Communication and Media Education

Specific:

1. raise awareness among the participants by enabling them to be more committed and responsive to eliminating gender biases;
2. discuss the principles of Financial Management as one of the tools to smart parenting;
3. show appreciation on the importance of efficient and effective verbal and nonverbal communication;
4. equip them with the skills on how to handle media and strengthen media effects to the community and

V. EVALUATION

An evaluation instrument will be distributed, collated and analyzed.

VI. EXPECTED OUTPUT

- Oath of Commitment that all participants will become gender-oriented educators who can address gender issues and promote gender equality
