Dear Dr. Dulangon,

Greetings of Peace!

The yearly Christian Leadership Training Seminar (CLTS) of the Archdiocesan Campus Ministry (ACM) is scheduled on April 1-5, 2013. This seminar is offered for the Campus Ministry Student Volunteers in both public and private schools in the cities and provinces of Cebu.

The CLTS consists of five (5) consecutive days live-in training that involves the identification of one's values through self-appreciation sessions, workshops on leadership skills, conferences and activities on the concepts of persons, Christian Leadership community building and Jesus' style of leadership. The main thrust of the training is in Spiritual Maturity, fraternal bonding of participants with biblical reflections and to value team effort as part of an effective leadership and to allow also the participants to develop their talents and creativity. As they discover their leadership skills, they will realign these to Jesus' style of leadership as presented in the Bible. The said activity will be of great help to students' involvement in the Campus Ministry activities. Each school/campus may send at most two (2) representatives. The participants will become official members of the ACM youth, who will be given the opportunities and responsibilities to lead and facilitate in the ACM activities. In order to facilitate the accommodation and scheduled activities, they are advised to depart on Monday, April 1, 2013. The assembly time is between 6:30am-7:30am at the ACM Office. Registration fee is One thousand (P1,000.00) pesos per student for the transportation, food and other expenses. They can pay anytime in the ACM Office.
