Dear Ms. Dulangon:

Our warmest greetings!

The Philippine Center for Gifted Education (PCGE) is a non-profit organization devoted to raising public awareness about giftedness and the education of gifted youths. Presently based at the University of the Philippines-Diliman, PCGE aims to actively search for the Filipino gifted and to provide them equitable access to gifted programs.

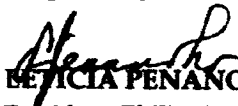

As part of its advocacy in the Visayas area, PCGE, in cooperation with UNESCO National Commission-Philippines and the University of San Agustin is holding a SUMMIT ON GIFTEDNESS AND HIGH ABILITY in Iloilo City on August 3 and 4, 2013. It will be in the Urdaneta Hall, University of San Agustin.

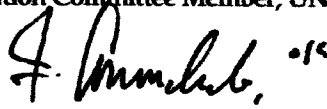

In this regard, we would like to invite you to share in this advocacy by helping us disseminate the information to schools and invite educators, school administrators, and parents from the region to attend this event through an endorsement from your office. Please find attached program of activities for the two day conference. A registration fee of Php 1,500 (for professionals), Php 1, 200 (for students) will be collected for the handouts, meals and honoraria for the speakers.

I look forward for your positive action on this request. Together, we can pave the way for the gifted and the high ability learners in the Philippines. Given the opportunity to harness their potential, they will be among the greatest assets and contributors to our national development. For queries on pre-registration fee and other matters, please contact University of San Agustin, Graduate School at telephone no. 033 3374841 loc. 241 and mobile no. 09189398709 and look for Sir Frank Emboltura.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully,

JERICCIA PENANO-HO, Ph.D.
President, Philippine Center for Gifted Education
Education Committee Member, UNESCO National Commission-Philippines
