Dear Dr. Dulangon:

We are pleased to inform you that Primetrade Asia, Inc., in partnership with Potencia, Inc, is organizing Educare: A Young Child Conference slated on September 13 & 14, 2013 at the SMX Convention Center, Mall of Asia Complex, Pasay City.

This year, Educare will focus on a very important topic: Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics (STEAM). The event will bring about the understanding of STEAM in early childhood education and beyond. It will also bring new topics and issues that will support the important emphasis of science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics even in the early years.

Educare is devoted to the continuous improvement and development of the early childhood education systems and strategies in our country, as well as to build a better future for our young children. We are expecting approximately 200 early childhood professionals, educators, practitioners, parents, students, and people who work with children to attend from across the country. Educare also boasts its main speaker, Ms. Ling Yuan - a key figure in the Singapore Ministry of Education. She will talk about "Sizzling Science for Young Scientists" and "Making Math Manageable" in the Conference.

Educare: A Young Child Conference will be held in conjunction with The 34th Manila International Book Fair slated from September 11 - 15, 2013 at Halls 1 - 4 of the SMX Convention Center.

In this regard, we wish to request your good office to support this worthwhile endeavor by sponsoring public school teachers to attend Educare: A Young Child Conference. By attending the conference, the teachers will have the access to the brightest minds and experts from the early childhood field and will increase their professional skills and knowledge. As special promo for government teachers, we are offering a Government Rate which is Php 4,000.00 only, instead of the Php 6,000.00 regular rate. Aside from that, we are happy to inform you of our 5+1 promo, that for every five (5) participants that you will send, you will have one (1) free participant. The 5+1 promo is valid until August 23, 2013 only.

We have enclosed the brochure that will give you pertinent details about the event. Should you need more info, please feel free to contact the Undersigned or Ms. Hannah Sarmento at telephone numbers 897-0139 or 895-2966.

Thank you and we look forward to your positive response.

Yours truly,
