GRADUATION MESSAGE

At long last! The School Year 2014-2015 has come to a close.

Apparently, the journey has never been that easy. It has been marked by trials, like the occurrence of calamities and the never-ending array of activities in school and in the community.

Yet, my dear graduates, please call to mind that time is in your side – meaning, you are in the springtime of life. You have to make the best of what life has to offer you, amidst all the happenings here and abroad. No matter what and how much it will cost you, you must not be conquered by the odds. Looking at the bright side of life will always reap a good harvest that can lead you to a promising adult life.

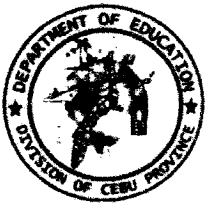

You are now embarking on another episode in your life, one that will hopefully bring about an outpouring of blessings for you and your loved ones.

So, dear graduates, savor every learning experience in and outside of your campus. Put your best feet forward in whatever task laid on your shoulders. Be youngsters who can make a difference in your community. Be the kind of persons whom DepED has envisioned you to be, and whom your parents, teachers and the entire nation can be proud of.

When this comes to pass, the theme for this year's graduation, "Saktong Buhay: Sa De-kalidad na Edukasyon Pinanday," shall ring true.

Congratulations and Godspeed!
