MESSAGE

My heartfelt congratulations to the Graduating Class of School Year 2014-2015 with the theme "Saktong Buhay: Sa Dekalidad na Edukasyon Pinanday."

This theme will always remind us that quality education plays a very important role not only among our young graduates today but also to every Filipino who dreams of making this country great again. This is a dream which needs the collaborative work of the teachers, parents, students and the community as a whole.

My dear graduates, today is not the end of your search for knowledge. It is just the beginning of a new journey to enrich what you gained from your dear Alma Mater and guide you to become what you want to be in the future. This is a very significant day to all of you because it gives you the assurance to move on and reach your unreachable star.

Receiving your diploma is enough to give you the feeling of joy and satisfaction for it signifies the fruit of your endeavor. It is the reward of your hard work and perseverance which you can proudly present to those who have nurtured and sacrificed a lot for you to attain the best education you deserve.

Your dear Alma Mater has prepared you to face the new challenges in life. It has provided you with the necessary knowledge and skills which you can use in meeting the new demands you will encounter once you are out of its portals. It has also given you moral and spiritual guidance which strengthen you and your faith in a Divine Being and help you accept the ups and downs in life with an open heart.

In facing the new world after your graduation, always remember that it is not the end but the beginning of another journey. Be guided with this saying, "Life has to be challenging in order to make it worthwhile."

Congratulations and good luck!
