Dear Dr. Jeruta:

Greetings of Peace!

In relation to and in compliance with the provision of our Constitution as contained in the DECS Order No. 13, s 1998, entitled "Revised Rules and Regulations on the Teaching of Religion in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools", I would like to endorse to your good office our catechists who have dedicated themselves for the service of the Church through catechesis.

The aforementioned directive of our Constitution provides an opportunity for us in the religious sector to conduct Catechetical Instructions to the children and the youth in all levels both in public and private schools. We believe that more than ever, our young people today need not only academic formation but also spiritual formation and catechetical training.

Please be informed therefore, that the Parish Priests and/or head-catechists will coordinate with the public schools' principals, administrators and officers-in-charge regarding religious instructions in public schools.

As I commend our catechists to your warm welcome and hospitality, I remain

Yours in Christ,

+JOSE S. PALMA, DD
