Dear Dir. Jeruta,

The Department of Health and the Department of Education will launch the first National School Deworming Day - a massive school-based deworming effort to approximately 16 million school-aged children enrolled in public schools this coming July 29, 2015. This one-day, simultaneous deworming of school children aged 5 – 12 years old, Kindergarten to Grade 6 student learners will lead to improved and better health outcome which is among the targets in the Roadmap of the Kalusugan Pangkalahatan or Universal Health Care through High Impact Breakthrough.

In line with this, we request Dr. Berna J. Ysulan, Supervising Dentist, to identify and invite sixty (60) School Heads/ Head Teachers from Schools Divisions in Province of Cebu and City Divisions to attend the "Awareness Lecture on School-Based Deworming – Cebu Batch" on 14 July 2015 in a venue in Cebu City. Activity commences at 10:00 am. Venue and food will be shouldered by the DOH – RO VII while transportation and per diems will be borne by the sending agency as DEPED's counterpart. For confirmation of venue and other concerns, please contact Ms. Ma. Michelle P. Acosta, Nurse III through (032) 254-44387 or 0923-1416757.

We commend your department for the continued support in our quest for healthy school children.

Very truly yours,
