DATE : 27 July 2015

The SEAMEO Secretariat, announces the SEAMEO Cultural Week 2015 Contest as part of SEAMEO's 50th Anniversary celebration.

The objectives of the cultural week are to:

- a) enhance the understanding of Southeast Asia's cultural diversity and traditions;
- b) strengthen collaborations between schools, education ministries, and SEAMEO centers across the region in promoting interactive platforms for the youths of Southeast Asia to appreciate the region's cultures;
- c) create an interactive media platform for the youths of Southeast Asia to exchange knowledge and information on each other's respective cultures; and
- d) engage schools in the development of video documentation on their respective cultural heritage, which can be utilized as resource materials in the future.

The SEAMEO cultural week contest is open to all primary and secondary schools in the 11 Southeast Asian countries, including the Philippines. The schools must prepare a video two (2) to five (5) minutes in total length presenting a local form of the country's cultural heritage. The video file should not exceed 500 megabytes (500MB) in size. The cultural week will provide participating Southeast Asian countries and schools the opportunity to share their cultural heritage with viewers across the region and beyond.
