SUBJECT : TRAINING FOR TEACHERS ON HOW TO BECOME LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS
IN THE SCHOOLS (Third Batch)

DATE : SEPT 14, 2015

As agreed in the Strategic Planning Workshop with The Lord Who Cares Foundation, Inc., Provincial Government representatives and the Ramon Aboitiz Foundation, Inc. (RAFI), school heads and teachers of the recommended vulnerable schools in Cebu Island shall be trained how to become lighthouse keepers in the schools. This project aims to promote excellence-driven schools and GOD-loving graduates among the covered areas with the following:

1. To establish support systems for teachers and students who underwent traumatic or devastating experiences caused by the death of loved ones, illnesses, typhoon/disaster in the area, emotional disturbance, and other environmentally-related factors
2. To promote friendly and nurturing relationships among school heads, teachers, and students in the school management and operations
3. To provide opportunities for students' interests to be honed/formed through peer mentoring, club activities, thereby developing respect, trust and greater faith to the Lord Almighty.
4. To provide avenue where students will find schools as a protective haven where they can safely stay and engage productively in their processes of becoming
