Dear Dr. Jeruta,

Attention: Dr. Luz C. Jandayan
Education Program Supervisor
Curriculum and Learning Management Division

We just learned that the CLMD, who is now reviewing the biodiversity-integrated log-plans, is undermanned. They suggested that a two-day "polishing and enhancing" conference with the subject supervisors and the curriculum writers will enable them to finish the task and for the project to field-test the log-plans within the current school year.

SWCF is requesting your kind office to approve the above-suggested conference. SWCF will be willing to assist in venue-rental and food expenses while transportation cost of the participants is DepEd's counterpart contribution to the activity. This could be charged to the participant school's MOOE.

Concerned supervisors of CLMD will coordinate with SWCF and other concerned schools and principals for the schedules of the conference and the field testing. We hope that that we could start within this month. Attached is a list of the participants of the above-mentioned conference and the recommended schools for field testing the log-plans.

Thank you for your attention to the above matter and we look forward to your approval.

Respectfully Yours
