No. 790, s. 2015

INVENTORY OF HERITAGE TREES IN EVERY PUBLIC SCHOOL NATIONWIDE

To : Assistant Superintendents
Education Supervisors/Coordinators
District Supervisors/OICs
Elementary and Secondary Schools Heads

1. This refers to the request of Senator Loren Legarda for the inventory of heritage trees in every public school nationwide in support of her advocacy on cultural preservation and environmental protection.
2. Director Ricardo L. Calderon of the Forest Management Bureau of the Department of Environment and Natural resources (FMB-DENR) informed Br. Armin A. Luistro FSC, our secretary that only public schools (elementary and high school) within Regions 2 and 12 have submitted the list of heritage trees inventoried in compliance to the FMB Memorandum dated April 7, 2015.
3. All districts which have not conducted the inventory/submitted the documentation are urged to comply with the said FMB Memorandum. Immediate submission of reports to this Office is required. (Attn: Mrs. Rosanna U. Godinez, for both elementary and secondary schools).
4. The inventory shall be used as reference in avoiding the cutting of heritage trees to give way to the construction of school buildings and similar projects.
5. For your guidance and compliance.
