Dear Dr. Jeruta,

The Three Acts of Goodness is a worldwide movement of Fo Guang Shan that encourages self and societal transformation the purification of our actions, speech, and thoughts and the cultivation of wisdom and compassion. This campaign encourages everyone, boundless by religious belief and race, to adhere the universal principle of being good.

The Three Acts of Goodness (TAG) are Do Good Deeds, Speak Good Words, and Think Good Thoughts. These acts are simple but has great impact in each and everyone. We are selecting a total of 114 junior high school graduates from all Divisions of Region VII (6 per division: 3 male students and 3 female students). The award Includes a TAG Medal, a Certificate and a Scholarship of a short-term performing arts summer workshop at Guang Ming Institute of Performing Arts – Cebu. The qualifications for the Three Acts of Goodness Award are as follows

- An active leader of the student body
- Have a weighted General Average of 90 and above
- Highly recommended by the adviser for their good attitude and good moral conduct
- Be involved in community extension service or outreach programs with the school

Each division should send their recommendation of the 3 male and 3 female outstanding graduates with the filled out TAG AWARDEE PROFILE of each student(attached) and date of the moving-up ceremony of the school to the Department of Education Regional Office for endorsement on or before March 28 2019.

Since schools throughout Region VII are wide spread, we will be mailing the Three Acts of Goodness Award Package with the name of the student to each their respective schools by April 1-5 so that the outstanding graduates will receive their award during their moving up ceremonies.

Should you have any questions and clarifications please do not hesitate to contact our project officer, Mr. Vince Sendrijas, TAG Ambassador, at 09958671156 / (032) 254-8990 or at vincesendrijas@gmail.com
