Attention:

DR. MARIA JESUSA C. DESPOJO

Chief Education Supervisor
CLMD

Dear Dr. Jimenez,

The Three Acts of Goodness is a worldwide movement of Fo Guang Shan that encourages self and societal transformation the purification of our actions, speech, and thoughts and the cultivation of wisdom and compassion. This campaign encourages everyone, boundless by religious belief and race, to adhere the universal principle of being good.

The Three Acts of Goodness (TAG) are Do Good Deeds, Speak Good Words, and Think Good Thoughts. These acts are simple but has great impact in each and everyone. In the last school year 2018-2019, Fo Guang Shan Philippines launched the Three Acts of Goodness Awardee to outstanding Junior High school graduate from each school in Region VII that exhibits the Three Acts of Goodness. We are going to continue this endeavor this school year 2019-2020.

We are selecting a total of 114 junior high school graduates from all Divisions of Region VII (6 per division: 3 male students and 3 female students). The award includes a TAG Medal, a Certificate and a Scholarship of a short-term performing arts summer workshop at Guang Ming Institute of Performing Arts – Cebu. The qualifications for the Three Acts of Goodness Award are as follows

The student should be:

- A graduating junior high school student
- An active leader of the school's student body organization.
- Have a weighted General Average of 85 % and above.
- Highly recommended by the adviser and the principal for their good attitude and moral conduct
- Be involved in community extension services or outreach programs with the school.

Each division should send their recommendation of the 3 males and 3 females outstanding graduates (preferably coming from different schools in the division) together with the filled- out TAG AWARDEE PROFILE of each student.

The name list together with the hard copy of the TAG Awardee Profile will be submitted by the Division office to the Regional Office on or before February 28, 2020.

On the other hand, the Division office may have an option to send a soft copy only of the TAG Awardee Profile through executiveoffice.gmicebu@gmail.com.

Since schools throughout Region VII are wide spread, we will be mailing the Three Acts of Goodness Award Package with the name of the student to each their respective schools by March 16, 2020 so that the outstanding graduates will receive their award during their moving up ceremonies.

For the project to be benefited by the many outstanding students in the future, we shall be asking the school to assist our awardee in submitting a picture with the TAG medal and certificate during their moving-up ceremony to be submitted before April 17, 2020. to the same email.

Should you have any questions and clarifications please do not hesitate to contact our project officer, Mr. Froilan Roi Ybanez, TAG Ambassador, at 09055372166 / (032) 254-8990 or at executiveoffice.gmicebu@gmail.com

We are positive that with this program, the Three Acts of Goodness will be successfully implemented through the outstanding graduates who would later be good examples to their school and community. Thank you and God Bless!

Sincerely Yours,

Junrey Alayacyac
Chief Executive Officer
Guang Ming Institute of Performing Arts - Cebu
